Linda Ferraro, daughter of Francesco [Frank] Ferraro and Catterina [Catherine] Villanova, immigrated to the U.S. on 1 Nov 1920 with her parents and 2 brothers to join a third brother, Virginio, in Rockford IL. Linda and John married in Rockford on 7 Dec 1920 – five weeks after her arrival. They had 6 children: Mary, John Anthony, Livia, Gino, Joseph, and Virginia. Virginia died in 1929 at 9 months of age, and her mother Linda died 4 weeks later. John worked as an independent landscape gardener during this period in the northern suburbs of Chicago, where the family also lived.

He was granted citizenship by the Court on 20 Aug 1920, Certification of Naturalization No. 1353695.

His Petition included the following information about him. John Ullian, 932 North Ave, Winnetka Ill. Landscape gardener. Born 6 September 1890 at Salcedo Italy. Two witnesses, Orval Simpson, 932 North Ave, Winnetka; and Harold W. Snell, public utility operator, 1205 Scott Ave, Hubbard Woods [now a neighborhood in Winnetka], swore that the petitioner had lived in the U.S. and Illinois since 1 January [possibly June] 1915. John Ullian and Linda Ferraro's Marriage License - back

We do not know how John and Linda met, but given that the marriage occurred 5 weeks after her arrival in the U.S., we suspect that family connections were involved. We do not know whether the families knew each other in Italy.

John's Occupations

During this period of his life, John was a gardener, landscaper, and contractor on the north side of Chicago (Glencoe, Northbrook, Highland Park, Hubbard Woods, Kenilworth, etc.) as were some of his in-laws the Ferraros. Fr. Gino Ferraro [Linda's brother, a Catholic priest] has said that John had many trucks with his name on the side while he was in business. He did gardening and landscape work for many of the wealthy families there, including Marshall Field (the man). Son John Anthony, even in his eighties, still remembered living at one point as a very young child "close enough to Lake Michigan that you could throw a pillow out the bedroom window into the lake."

There is a belief among some in the family that a falling out between John and the Ferraros resulted in his losing his business, with the details vague and varying by source. Another uncorroborated story is that Linda Ferraro's cousin Frank Ferraro (not her father Frank Ferraro) dealt in contraband (these were the Prohibition years in the U.S.), and was referred to by some in the family as "the mean one." Gino Ullian had a photo of Frank with his arm around Mussolini, but the photo was destroyed in a fire.

As 1929 began, John and his family were living at 692 Central Ave. in Highland Park, near the railroad station, and his brother Romano lived just a couple blocks away on Second Ave. It was a year that would change the lives of the families of John and his brother Romano – not only because of the stock market crash in October, but for more personal reasons.

Births of John and Linda's Children

Of note in the birth certificates below are the inconsistencies in John's and Linda's birthplaces, and that their own ages on the dates of their children's births vary from what would be expected given their own actual birth dates. We found this and similar inconsistencies common in other documents we examined.

Linda and John had the following 6 children:

Mary Katherine Ullian was born on 4 Nov 1921 at 710 Houghton St. (where both parents lived), Rockford, Winnebago, Illinois. The birth certificate lists the father, John Ullian, as a 30-year-old gardener born in Italy, and the mother, Linda Ferraro, as a 26-year-old housewife born in Italy. Mary was her first child.

Joseph Ullian's Birth Certificate Corrections

Virginia Linda Ullian was born on 11 Jun 1928 at 344 Madison St. in Glencoe IL, her parents' home, according to her birth certificate. That document stated that her father was John Ullian, a 38-year-old contractor born in Italy, and her mother was Linda Farro [Ferraro], a 33-year-old housewife born in Italy. Virginia was her sixth child, all living at that time. She was born at 10:46 – but we cannot tell from the certificate whether that is a.m. or p.m. The certificate was signed by the attending physician, Edw. L. Larson, M.D. of Wheeling IL on 11 Jun 1928. Without explanation, one entry on the certificate indicates that it was filed on 10 Jun 1928.

Virginia Ullian's Birth Certificate

It is of note that we have three different names for Virginia: Virginia Linda on her birth certificate, Alice Virginia on her baptism information [which could have been an unintentional transposition] and Virginia Alice on her death certificate. The tombstone she shares with her mother simply says Baby Virginia.

Virginia was baptized on 27 Jan 1929 by Rev. Frederic Hoarth, Pastor at Sacred Heart Church, Winnetka IL. Her godparents were Mathias Caretto and Alice Caretto.

We have the following information on Virginia's godparents. The 1930 Federal Census shows that on 17 May 1930 Mathew Carretto, a landscape gardener, lived with his wife Alice and three children at 708 Central Ave. in Highland Park IL. That address was obviously very close to 692 Central Ave., where John's family moved to sometime between Virginia's birth on 11 Jun 1928 and her death on 15 Mar 1929. We do not know why that move occurred, but we might speculate that John moved his family to be closer to the godmother of his youngest daughter, who suffered from spina bifida and may have needed more care than Linda (with 5 other children under the age of 9, and herself with a heart problem) could provide. On 17 May 1930, the Federal Census shows that John's family was no longer at 692 Central – that house was occupied by Grant Carrier, 7 family members, and 3 boarders – obviously a large house.

Virginia Ullian died on 15 Mar 1929, a few days after turning 9 months old. The cause of death was spina bifida (malnutrition secondary). Her address was 692 Central Ave, Highland Park IL. She was buried on 18 Mar 1929 in Sacred Heart Cemetery, Vernon Township, Lake, Illinois. The informant was John Ferraro, brother of her mother Linda. The death certificate gave her date of birth as June 6 rather than the June 11 date shown on her birth certificate.

A number of Ferraro family members are also buried at this cemetery including 3 of Linda's brothers:

John Ferraro (1893-1959), his wife Anna (1899-1980), and their sons John A. (1925-1926) and John G. (1931-1934);

Virginio A. Ferraro (1891-1965) and his wife Carlotta (1901-1997); and Narcissus D. Ferraro (1896-1976) and his wife Mary (1906-1992).

Reflection of Linda and John's first son, John Anthony, about the day of his mother's funeral, which was also his sixth birthday:

"In the house they had her. All the curtains pulled, the candles all lit, and all of us little kids were sitting around there. And pretty soon they came in and they took the kids out and put us in a hearse, and we all sat in there in that black hearse, scared to death, not knowing what was going on, where we were going."
